I looked into the mirror. Would Sebastian want me? I knew I was attractive, but he was fucking perfect. No matter how hard I tried, I could never get him to notice me. I'd spend time choosing flattering clothing and fluffing out my hair, but he always chose some groupie over me.

I was done with that bullshit. Those times were over. I had to make the first move now.

I downed half a bottle of Jack for courage and put on a little eyeliner, then stepped out into the dark hotel hall and headed down to Sebastian's room.
